3. [ ] Mr. J. Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Subcommittee on Internal Security, called to request a copy of "The National Liberation Movement in Latin America" by Ernest Halperin. He believes it was copyrighted by Cambridge Press in 1969, but publication may have been withheld for security reasons. [ ] [ ] OCI, advises that [ ] CA, actually assisted Mr. Halperin in the book. He will try to get a galley proof for Mr. J. Sourwine.

5. [ ] Mrs. Susan Hamilton, Office of Representative Peter Frelinghuysen (R., N.J.), called advising receipt of a letter from a constituent which severely criticized CIA. The letter posed many questions as to funding, congressional oversight, etc. Mrs. Hamilton did not feel that the letter warranted referral to us for reply and sought guidance as to how to handle it. It sufficed if we would furnish her with a copy of our standard publication on the Agency which she would send to the constituent. She did not feel it necessary that we prepare a suggested reply.
